FEATURED SPEAKER

Galen Dillman

Historian and researcher of the Presidio and its National Cemetery

Originally a Spanish fort built in 1776, the Presidio is one of the most interesting National Parks. Mr. Dillman will share his insights on the rich history of the Presidio and National Cemetery (from army post to National Cemetery) including a discussion of the lives of four of the interesting folks buried in the cemetery, Sergeant William Tompkins, Pauline Cushman, Captain Reginald Desiderio, and Ruth K. Moy.

LUNCH - $42

We are returning to Il Fornaio in San Francisco for lunch. Feedback was very positive from our event there last October.
