WHAT MY CHAPTER LIKES

Randy Albers, So. Cal. Area, South Bay – La Habra Chapter

1. South Bay Chapter (El Segundo) has its own clubhouse and breakfast every Tuesday morning.
 2. The South Bay Chapter quarterly meetings/luncheons have been divided into several different topics: Refinery management, BINGO day, the Luau/Fiesta, and outside speaker.
 3. All are invited to the Annual Retiree Luncheon and the Chevron Refinery annual picnic.

Jaye Smith, Intermountain Area, So. Arizona Chapter

1. Regular email engagement - CRASoAZ contacts their members twice a month.
 2. Annual summer organizational meeting for all members to interact in regard to chapter operations
 3. Locally-based Benefits liaison to help connect our members with those who can answer their questions most efficiently.
 4. Regular bi-monthly newsletter featuring member highlights.
 5. Due to our demographics, our activities are limited to October through March, possibly eliminating December meetings due to many of our members being out of town

Kaye Horchler, West Texas/NM Chapter

1. Each meeting begins with introductions, quick rundown on Chevron's closing price, cover activities going on around the world.
 2. Inviting local groups such as "Walkabout - Volksports" recording walking exercise
 3. Visiting Chevron Midland facilities.

Paul T Skakun, South Texas Area, Hill Country Chapter

1. Frequent electronic communication (most important), emails and website.
 2. Rotating luncheon venues (quarterly) in our large chapter area to minimize travel
 3. Send out at least three (3) Email reminders of our events
 4. Try to have at least one (1) new meeting venue each year
 5. Big Holiday Luncheon: many door prizes and table favors - our biggest event
